This animation technique uses black silhouettes against a white background, or white silhouettes against a black background; a technique that can look really effective and professional. Using this technique the animator pays more attention to the motion, shape, pacing and timing of subjects in order to convey emotion.

To create a simple silhouette animation all you need is some black and white paper and imagination!

Idea! Create a silhouette animation of some fairies or elves in a forest, or a scary monster hiding behind some trees!